AINSMITH WEDS SOUTHERN BELLE

Nationals' Catcher Yesterday Married to Miss Grace Bate, of San Antonio, Tex.

RECENT VISIT EXPLAINED

His Trip to Capital Last Month Was to Consult Grief About Matter.

Special to The Washington Herald.

San Antonio, Tex., Jan. 2.—Catcher Eddie Ainsmith, of the Washington baseball club, was married here today to Miss Grace Bate, of 121 East San Pedro Place, and the couple left for the North late this evening.

Miss Bate is a popular young society girl of this city. She has known Ainsmith but two years, meeting him during the winter of 1912 when he was down here in search of health. She is an ardent baseball fan, although she has never seen her husband play ball.

The mystery of Ainsmith's sudden trip to Washington last month is explained. He had planned for this marriage, but wanted to consult Manager Griffith before taking such an important step. Upon his return from the Capital, when interviewed by a representative of The Washington Herald here, he said: "The Old Fox was tickled to death when I told him I intended to get married. Of course, I did not ask him for any advance money. What does a guy want with money when he is going to get married?"

Mr. and Mrs. Ainsmith will spend a honeymoon in the North and are planning to return to Washington about the time set for reporting for spring practice.

The announcement of Ainsmith's marriage was expected by his many friends in the Capital. He confided in the boys that he expected to take the plunge shortly after the first of the year.

The Nationals purchased Ainsmith from the Lawrence club, of the New England circuit, during the summer of 1910. He has been with the team ever since and is rated as one of the best catchers in the American League.

EIGHT-CLUB LEAGUE.

Tri-State Circuit Likely to Expand.

Meet Tuesday.

Lancaster, Pa., Jan. 2.—At a meeting this afternoon of owners and officers of the Tri-State Baseball League, it was decided to recommend to the league, which meets next Tuesday at Harrisburg, to make it an eight, instead of six-team league. A committee was appointed to notify Charles F. Carpenter, league president, that league business next season must be along prescribed lines. It was intimated, however, that President Carpenter's resignation would virtually be asked.

TINKER CAN BACK OUT.

Friends of the Shortstop Claim He Can Return to Organized Baseball.

New York, Jan. 2.—Close friends of Joe Tinker may say that he has signed a conditional contract with the Chicago Federals. They insist that Tinker has the right to cancel the contract if the Federals fail to establish themselves in certain cities and also are unsuccessful in bidding for the services of numerous star players. In other words, if the Federal League turns out to be a bloomer, Tinker will not be compelled to live up to his $25,000 contract.

In view of the inevitable dispute between Brooklyn and Cincinnati over the now famous $15,000 check, Tinker's friends seem to think that if the Federals go up in smoke, C. W. Murphy, of the Cubs, will be glad to reimburse Ebbets, McGraw and Co. for the services of the noted shortstop.

Players Offered Free Trolley Rides.

Fitchburg, Mass., Jan. 2.—Fred Lake, manager of the Fitchburg team in the New England League, has conferred with several prominent officials in regard to plans.

W. W. Sargent, of the street railway company, offered the players free transportation to and from the park and to other points on the league circuit.

B. A. JONES CAPTURES

FEATURE AT JUAREZ

Missouri Bay Gelding Ramps Home in First Position in Main Attraction on Card.

Juarez, Jan. 2.—Favorites and second choices accounted for a majority of the races this afternoon and the form players were enabled to recoup some of their losses of the preceding days. The race for two-year-old colts and geldings was as attractive as any on the card, and it resulted in a victory for B. A. Jones, a bay gelding by Blues, out of Zella Knight, and bred in Missouri.
